3. Ages to coincide with "State" Final at Sydney Show.
4. Competitors will be divided into heats on the day.
5. Each competitor may enter only one class in the Paraders' Section.

6. Competitors, please note rule change:

Once a competitor has qualified to represent a Group at Sydney Royal Show in any one of the Judging or Parading Competition State Finals, he/she may not enter another Group Final as a potential qualifier in that type of competition in that competition year. He/she can, however, enter any one or more Group Finals anywhere in the state, for practice (and score), in the same type of competition as one in which he/she has previously qualified as long as he/she discloses this to the Group Final organisers at the time of entry and indicates that he/she is not eligible for a placing in that event.

("qualified" means First in Merino Sheep. First or Second in Meats Breeds Sheep, Merino Fleece and Beef Cattle, and First, second or Third in dairy Cattle, Fruit and Vegetables and Grain. In Beef Cattle Paraders, "qualified" means gaining one of the placings which the particular Group Final is entitled to award based on the scale of entries. The Stud Merino Breeders Association competition in Merino Sheep Judging at Armidale, Canberra and Dubbo are classed as Group Finals).
